I think the ASD leave situation the week of 28 December is excessive.

I can't really find that anybody will be minding the store and I don't understand and surject stand and schedule. I feel one or the other of these two guys should be here during that time.

25X1A